1971 Coca-Cola Cup
Semi-Final

Glenelg bolt to 71-point margin

Glenelg, with an easy 71-point win over a disappointing Torrens, coasted into next week's final of the Coca-Cola Cup, in the early game at Adelaide Oval today.

Glenelg were on top everywhere in the first term, and with a winning half-back line, and strong attack they took the game right away from Torrens.

After a series of points to the Phillis brothers, McPharlan snapped a major to put the Tigers nine points clear.

From this point, the Glenelg avalanche began, as goals came thick and fast from W. Phillis, D. Phillis, and Voigt, booting the Tigers to a 28-point lead at the first change.

Fred Phillis brought up his 100 goals for the season, with a snapped goal at the 16-minute mark.

The second quarter was a repetition of the first, as the Bays steamrolled their way to a commanding 55-point lead at the big break.

Torrens had few players doing their best, and after losing star centre half-back John Graham in this quarter, looked a very disorganised side.

The third term was a fairly even affair, and after Torrens had started to get back into the game early in the term, the Bays retaliated late in the quarter to lead by an unbeatable margin.

Both sides slowed down in the last term, and with strong defence from Colbey and Nicol, the Tigers were never in danger of defeat.

BAYS HOLD ON TO WIN

Glenelg beat Woodville by 12 points in the Colts' second semi-final.

The Bays gained a slender lead in the early stages, but neither side could break away in a very even game.

Maczkowiak rucked strongly for Glenelg, particularly in the last quarter to give them a lift that clinched victory.

Woodville captain Dean Hourigan played strongly trying to get his team on top.

Bays stop Redleg bid

Glenelg staved off a late challenge from the Redlegs to score a convincing 14-point win in the final of the Coca-Cola Cup.

Glenelg started off like steam trains, racing straight into attack for Voigt to score.

They were doing everything right as they raced 14 points clear before the Redlegs replied with a goal from Bob Oatey.

Carey, who was best afield early, booted Glenelg 13 points clear. Then Pettingill cut their deficit to 11 points.

Attacking for the last 10 minutes of the term, Glenelg managed only one more goal — from Fred Phillis — to have a commanding 15-point lead at the first change.

The Redlegs took the initiative at the start of the second term as they thrust forward for Woodcock to goal.

An easy mark to Carey in the square saw Glenelg again move away from their opponents and Tardif had little difficulty in following suit three minutes later.

Coligan, who had kept quiet in goals for the Redlegs, booted his first goal as time-on started.

However, Osborne and Fred Phillis quickly replied for Glenelg in the time-on period to set up a 30-point lead at half-time.

Norwood came back well in the third term. They started well as Seekamp and Roach quickly kicked majors and then Coligan followed up with two more.

The Bays came back through Adams and Voigt for goals, but the Redlegs were quick to reply through Coligan and Woodcock.

The Redlegs started the final term in great form, as Wynne and Roach goaled quickly.

The Bays came back through Casey, but Norwood was quick to reply through Pettingill.

A final goal from Roach made little difference to the result.
