Kluzek in 10-goal rampage

Eagles 24.12 (156)

Glenelg 9.4 (58)

By Nicki Tugwell

WELL-DRILLED league-leader Woodville-West Torrens yesterday toyed with Glenelg before completely outclassing it in a clinical 98-point win at Glenelg Oval.

The Tigers failed to trouble the disciplined Eagles, whose clean skills and numbers around the ball allowed them to increase a significant buffer at each break.

Eagles full forward Chris Kluzek booted his 50th goal for the season in the second quarter and was simply too good for Glenelg's backmen Duncan Draper and Paul Sherwood. Kluzek's cause was aided by swift and intuitive ball movement into the forward line by midfielders queing for a piece of the action.

Gavin Colville, Nick Pesch and Kluzek had paved the way for the Eagles, with John McCarthy and Jamie Tape shrewd in defence.

Kluzek constantly managed to find space and his marking under pressure and goal-kicking was a feature. After kicking 10.2, he left the ground late in the final quarter as a precationary measure with general soreness.

The Eagles, who had 10 goal scorers, benefited from a functional forward structure, where Michael Phillipou and Matthew Kluzek also proved a handful.

"We weathered it early and got the ball moving well and our forwards did the job for us," a satisfied Eagles' coach Paul Hamilton said. "We really got on top of things in the third quarter and our running and ball-handling were probably just a touch better."

For Glenelg, Martin Mellody was one of its few clear winners. Teammates Alistair Burke, Davis Hams and Cameron Venables worked tirelessly, while bigman Matthew Golding provided inspiration before half-time. His impact, however, was nullified in the second half when he was beaten in ruck by Matthew Manfield.

The Eagles led by 40 points at half-time and the result became a formality after the break.

Andrew Beveridge and Spiros Darzanos joined the host of dominant Eagles who combined to tally seven third-quarter goals to Glenelg's one.

The final siren put Glenelg out of its misery, but not before the Eagles added four last-quarter goals to one — protecting its position atop the ladder. The Tigers slumped to their 12th loss.

"We matched them pretty well in the first half," Glenelg coach Tony McGuinness said. "We were well down, but our effort was good as far as our game-plan set-up and structure around the footy goes. But in the third quarter, it opened up and opened up pretty badly."
