

Redlegs made to earn it

WARREN PARTLAND

NORWOOD continued to build momentum under new coach Jarrod Cotton with a hard-earned 31-point victory over Glenelg in an entertaining battle at The Parade last night.

The Redlegs were forced to shrug off a passionate Tigers outfit, which responded with plenty of character to a thrashing from Woodville-West Torrens, before grabbing a share of second on the ladder.

The tone for the first half was established from the outset with both teams attacking the contest with plenty of spirit and a fierce desire for the contest.

It was some ordinary work in defence from the Tigers which gifted the Redlegs their opening two goals. On-baller Matthew Panos, such an important cog in the Redlegs side, kicked off the scoring four minutes into the battle after a Tigers turnover.

The Tigers defence failed to clear the ball a few minutes later and Harrison Viney swooped to nail a goal for the home side.

When Ben Jefferies bagged a goal midway through the first term, the Redlegs led by 17 points and were seemingly on control with their damaging, direct ball movement.

Gun recruit Brad McKenzie made his league debut for the Redlegs and was busy across half-back. The endeavour of the Tigers was obvious, but a lack of polish with the skills or a poor decision at a critical moment proved costly.

There was no lack of fight in the visitors and they kept persisting, putting plenty of pressure on the Redlegs to surge back into the contest and grab the lead on the back of three unanswered goals.

Dom Barry is a class act and sparks much of the Tigers' run while Ben Sawford and Ziggy Vitkunas had an influence.

There was plenty of heat in the confrontation and it did not let up after the half-time siren when the two teams met in the centre square for some push and shove.

However, it was the Redlegs who settled immediately into gear in the third quarter and they ballooned the lead to 25 points just four minutes into the second half when in-form midfielder Kristian Roocke goaled. But the Tigers would not go away, refusing to concede and continually challenging the Redlegs. And they would have been closer on the scoreboard if not for butchered chances deep in attack.
